FRANCK BONVILLE PUR AVIZE 2012

Grand Cru

93/100

Light golden colour with a fine mousseux. Pure, youthful and discreet nose with hints of almond, hazelnut, ripe citrus, lemongrass and pale stone fruit. Lovely bite on the palate, crisp and salivating with underlying power and pure stone fruit flavours, mild creaminess and low dosage, and a very long and grippy finish. Still youthful with a lot more to give but lovely purity and precision.
